Reunite Responsibly

EL/WLA CSR/RESPONSIBLE GAMING SEMINAR

Hosted by

NEDERLANDSE
LOTERIJ

After two years of online meetings and two successful CSR-Responsible Gaming webinar weeks, it is finally time to reunite and reconnect in person. EL and WLA are therefore pleased to invite you to their joint seminar "Reunite Responsibly".

All over the world, more and more companies are integrating sustainable practices into their business models, and this applies to EL and WLA Members too. The seminar will focus on the latest developments and best practices on sustainability and reporting. It will also bring topics as consumer protection, responsible advertising, environmental developments and updates on responsible gaming studies and programmes.

MICHAEL AUER

Dr. Michael Auer made his PhD with Prof. Mark Griffiths at Nottingham Trent University. He published more than forty peer-reviewed articles in the area of online gambling about subjects like limit setting, personalized feedback, self-exclusion and pop-up messages. He is also a regular speaker at conferences and consults operators, regulators and policy makers around the world.

ANNE PATTBERG

Anne Pattberg is a long-time sustainability professional with broad experience and a record of successful cooperation with a variety of industries. From 2006 to 2011, she headed the sustainability department at Camelot Group plc. After Camelot Anne worked for a number of years in a senior position at PwC Germany on sustainability issues and conducted a variety of assurance projects. Since 2015, she owns her own Business PB Consulting GmbH.

RICHARD WOOD

Dr Richard Wood is the president of www.gamres.org and for the last 25 years has been developing and evaluating responsible gambling initiatives, such as www.gamgard.com for considering responsible game design. He also developed the concept of Positive Play and led the development of the Positive Play Scale (PPS) the first ever instrument to measure and optimize responsible gambling strategy.

The programme will be available on the EL and WLA websites.
